Why Participate in an ACCU-DART Case Study?

As an ACCU-DART Reseller, we invite you to share your story on how you fulfilled your clients' needs by participating in an ACCU-DART case study.

Promote Your Business

Case studies are amazing marketing tools to promote your business. It serves as both an educational and promotional tool that can leverage your marketing efforts to bring in new business.

By participating in an ACCU-DART case study, your company will be featured throughout the article. The entire case study can also be customized to include your contact info. This way when using it to promote your business, prospects will have an easy way to get in touch with you directly.

Share Your Story

Help us educate other resellers and end-users about how to identify business problems and find resolutions. Your story will be an invaluable asset to informing others about the benefits of better inventory control.

Special Bonus Offer

When you participate in an ACCU-DART case study, you are eligible for a 10% discount (up to $1,000) on your next ACCU-DART sale!

Help Your Clients Go Paperless with Directed Picking

ACCU-DART has now gone paperless. We are pleased to offer a new module for Sage 300 ERP: Directed Picking.

Just scan or enter the sales order number and ACCU-DART will direct the user where to go in the warehouse, what item to pick as well as the quantity. This is now a standard module. ACCU-DART will direct the user either by the pick sequence in the Sage 300 ERP software, the pick order in Orchid Bin tracking, or by the oldest lot.

This will eliminate the need to have a picking slip and allow the user to scroll between what items need to be picked by using either the left or right arrow keys.

For more information on Directed Picking, please contact Justin@accu-dart.com.

This year the AccountMate Synergy conference will be taking place in the exciting town of Las Vegas! The ACCU-DART team will be there to network with other resellers and gain valuable information about what's coming up with AccountMate.

No Customer is Too Small for Inventory Control

Whether your client runs a large multi-warehouse operation, or has a single employee managing operations in their small facility, everyone can benefit from greater inventory control through ACCU-DART.

Many of our smaller clients find that improved inventory control has an even greater impact on their bottom line. They can't afford to make mistakes. By verifying and updating their inventory information in real-time, these small businesses can reduce shrinkage costs and earn greater profits.

Please take a moment to read through this case study to see how a small business can reap the financial rewards of greater inventory control.
